

Ciacci Piccolomini d'Aragona

Italia / Toscana - Italy

CIACCI PICCOLOMINI d'ARAGONA

The estate has origins dating back to the 17th century and still preserves its historical heritage of “Palazzo” built by the bishop of Montalcino. In 1877 the Ciacci family acquired the entire property. Following the marriage between Count Alberto Piccolomini d'Aragona, direct descendant of Enea Silvio Piccolomini [better known as Pope Pius II] and Elda Ciacci, the Episcopal Palace became the Ciacci Piccolomini d'Aragona Palace.

In 1985, Countess Elda Ciacci bequeathed the entire property to Giuseppe Bianchini, the estate's farmer, applying a completely new and avant-garde production philosophy for the time, increasing the quantity and quality of the wines and opening exports to the entire world. . Currently his children Paolo, Lucia, Alex and Ester Bianchini run the winery, with...

Properties: 50 hectares (124 acres) with southwest exposure in the Orcia Valley (UNESCO World Heritage), near the Orcia River, south of Montalcino. These 50ha include the 11ha of the emblematic Vigna di Pianrosso.

Production: 250,000 bottles of which 65% are exported

Ciacci Piccolomini d'Aragona Toscana IGT Principalmente Sangiovese, con pequeñas cantidades de Syrah, Merlot y Cabernet Sauvignon

Ciacci Piccolomini d'Aragona Rosso di Montalcino 100% Sangiovese

Ciacci Piccolomini d'Aragona Brunello di Montalcino 100% Sangiovese

Ciacci Piccolomini d'Aragona Brunello di Montalcino Pianrosso 100% Sangiovese

