

Discover Azienda Vinicola Guido Mazzearello, a small winery located in the picturesque Casaleggio Boiro, in Piedmont, within the prized enclave of Monferrato.

The foundations of this winery date back to the dawn of the 20th century, when great-grandfather Pipino acquired the first plots of land. In that corner of Piedmontese land he planted the first roots of Dolcetto, the native vine that today remains an emblem of the region.

Over time, Pipino's vision was adopted by his son Guido, who gave it a unique identity. Guido, together with his commitment, took the wines beyond the confines of his native village, transcending borders and conquering palates.

Generation after generation, the passion for wine continues. Brothers Andrea and Enrico, Guido's sons, have pushed the project...

Properties: 10 hectares in the hills of the area to Gavi. The winery also buys grapes.

Production: 250,000 bottles per year, 35% of which are exported.
