

The Scriani estate is located in the village of Fumane in the heart of the Valpolicella Classica district. Its principle vineyards are at the top of Monte S.Urbano and in the area called "La Costa" to the west. With an altitude ranging from 250 to 400 meters above sea level, the vineyards are partly flat and partly terraced with dry stone walls and bordered by a picturesque torrential watercourse, called "Vaio".

Valpolicella wines are made mainly from a blend of three grape varieties: Corvina, Corvinone & Rondinella. The first two are the most important and must represent between 45% and 95% of the final blend. Corvina has a maraschino cherry character, yielding spicy, cherry and cinnamon flavors. Corvinone has large oval berries, and a distinct balsamic note that becomes...
